To know Christ and make him known

Sunday 17 March 2024

Fifth Sunday In Lent

There are people today, like the Greeks of the Gospel passage, who wish to see Jesus, they don't want to see church wardens, parish councils, bishops, priests or deacons. Still Jesus relies on his followers, us, like he relied on Philip and Andrew to bring others to see him. One of the hallmarks of being a mature disciple, apart from being fed on solid food, skilled in righteousness and trained to distinguish good from evil, is our readiness to introduce others to Jesus.

- God, help us to be mature disciples that show Jesus to others by our love, actions and speech.
- Give thanks for the work and witness of the Anglican Church of Melanesia.

Notice

The nomination process for a new parish priest—Consultation:

Archdeacon Angela Webb is with us today. She will take the 9.00am service followed by a consultation with members of the congregation. This is the first step in the process in which the Archdeacon visits and conducts a parish vacancy consultation. It allows members of the congregation to express their vision for future ministry in the parish. Parishioners are encouraged to attend as this is the forum where they can talk about their vision for the future mission of the parish.

Holy Communion - All are welcome to receive Communion with us. You may receive in one kind (just the bread) if you prefer. If you wish to receive the wine also, you may sip from the common cup. Please be aware that current diocesan regulations prohibit intinction (dipping) your wafer into the wine. Gluten free wafers are available.

Thought for the Week from MU - Women Worldwide

‘But let justice roll on like a river, righteousness like a never-failing stream’ Amos 5:24.

Justice is something we all want. We want to live in a just society and we wish to be treated with justice, especially when we are disadvantaged. In the end, we believe that justice is at the very heart of the universe, since God is just, and, as the prophet Amos reminds us, he wishes us to be righteous in our dealings with each other as well. Around the world there are many examples of women facing injustice simply because they are women. It is good to bear witness to the necessity of justice and righteousness and the fact that the Lord will judge us on the basis of our treatment of others. Let us care for those who suffer, and pray that the Lord’s kingdom will come so that all may be set to rights.

Question for thought:

How can I support Mothers Union world wide as it brings literacy and education to women?

Gracious heavenly Father, we pray for members in Antisiranana in Madagascar as they cope with impact of floods and cyclones. We give thanks for their commitment to sharing God’s love in families in their communities so that children might grow up knowing you. We also pray for Brisbane Diocese as they face challenges but continue to reach out to their communities in your name. Amen

Thankyou: to the Mothers’ Union for their participation in the service last Sunday and for the provision of posies and simnel cake

Notice

Jeremiah 31.31-34

<sup>31</sup> The days are surely coming, says the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah.

<sup>32</sup> It will not be like the covenant that I made with their ancestors when I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt—a covenant that they broke, though I was their husband, says the Lord.

<sup>33</sup> But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the Lord: I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

<sup>34</sup> No longer shall they teach one another, or say to each other, "Know the Lord," for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest, says the Lord; for I will forgive their iniquity, and remember their sin no more.

Psalms 119.9-16

9 How shall the young keep their path pure: unless they hold to your word?

10 I have sought you with my whole heart: let me not stray from your commandments.

11 I have treasured your words in my heart: that I might not sin against you.

12 Blessed are you, Lord God: O teach me your statutes.

13 With my lips I have been telling: all the judgements of your mouth;

14 And I find more joy in the way of your commands: than in all manner of riches.

15 I will meditate on your precepts:

and give heed to your ways;

16 For my delight is wholly in your statutes: and I will not forget your word.

Hebrews 5.5-14

<sup>5</sup> So also Christ did not glorify himself in becoming a high priest, but was appointed by the one who said to him, "You are my Son, today I have begotten you";

<sup>6</sup> as he says also in another place, "You are a priest forever, according to the order of Melchizedek."

<sup>7</sup> In the days of his flesh, Jesus offered up prayers and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to the one who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverent submission.

<sup>8</sup> Although he was a Son, he learned obedience through what he suffered;

<sup>9</sup> and having been made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him,

<sup>10</sup> having been designated by God a high priest according to the order of Melchizedek.

<sup>11</sup> About this we have much to say that is hard to explain, since you have become dull in understanding.

<sup>12</sup> For though by this time you ought to be teachers, you need someone to teach you again the basic elements of the oracles of God. You need milk, not solid food;

<sup>13</sup> for everyone who lives on milk, being still an infant, is unskilled in the word of righteousness.

<sup>14</sup> But solid food is for the mature, for those whose faculties have been trained by practice to distinguish good from evil.

John 12:20-33

<sup>20</sup> Now among those who went up to worship at the festival were some Greeks.

<sup>21</sup> They came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, and said to him, "Sir, we wish to see Jesus."

<sup>22</sup> Philip went and told Andrew; then Andrew and Philip went and told Jesus.

<sup>23</sup> Jesus answered them, "The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified.

<sup>24</sup> Very truly, I tell you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains just a single grain; but if it dies, it bears much fruit.

<sup>25</sup> Those who love their life lose it, and those who hate their life in this world will keep it for eternal life.

<sup>26</sup> Whoever serves me must follow me, and where I am, there will my servant be also. Whoever serves me, the Father will honour.

<sup>27</sup> "Now my soul is troubled. And what should I say—"Father, save me from this hour"? No, it is for this reason that I have come to this hour.

<sup>28</sup> Father, glorify your name." Then a voice came from heaven, "I have glorified it, and I will glorify it again."

<sup>29</sup> The crowd standing there heard it and said that it was thunder. Others said, "An angel has spoken to him."

<sup>30</sup> Jesus answered, "This voice has come for your sake, not for mine.

<sup>31</sup> Now is the judgment of this world; now the ruler of this world will be driven out.

<sup>32</sup> And I, when I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all people to myself."

<sup>33</sup> He said this to indicate the kind of death he was to die.
